*Lighting of the Christ Candle

L: When we light a candle we usually take it where we want it to go and set it down.

P: Then we can go on with our tasks within its light.

L: This candle is a reminder of Christ's presence in our lives.

P: This light guides us where God calls us to go.

L: We have the opportunity to let this light shine through us. When we share this light, we enlarge the space it lights in a way that reminds us that Christ is the light of the world.

The peace of Christ be with you.

P: And also with you.

God our Great Host, we come today to worship and share a meal together. We know that the table, your Table, extends through the world. It is not contained by walls and structures. Invitation to the Table

Prayer of Great Thanksgiving (Responsive)

L: God is with us. Lift up your hearts.

P: We lift them to the Lord.

L: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

P: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

L: Holy One, you speak to us in silence, yet all languages interpret you.

Because you call us to be in community, we are able to become gifts to one another.

We invoke now your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts, that in sharing them, we may discern your presence which becomes our life.

We remember and give thanks for those called out with a vision of possibility and promise: for Abraham and Sarah, for Isaac and Rebecca, for Jacob with Leah and Rachel, for Moses and Miriam.

We thank you for your people who followed Moses through the birthing waters of the Red Sea into the wilderness of tempering search, until they became a people ready to enter the promised land.

We thank you for the openness of Mary who dared to accept the call to be the bearer and nurturer of your Anointed One, Jesus.

P: Holy, holy, holy Lord

God of power and might

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

We bless you, O God, for Jesus, who through his life, death and resurrection fully lived the promise of redemptive wholeness available for all who would be obedient to your creating will.

Therefore we rejoice to proclaim:

P: Christ has died.

Christ has risen.

Christ will come again.

L: Recalling his death, proclaiming his resurrection and looking expectantly for his coming again in glory, we have been made a new people. Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts and upon all who gather to eat and drink at this table, may we be one body and one holy people, your people.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, all glory, honour and might is yours now and forever...

The Lord's Prayer (Sung)

VU# 959

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil
for the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Sharing the Bread & Cup

Prayer after Communion (Unison)

you are bread for the journey, and the wine of arrival.

Guide us as we follow in your way, holding on to each other, reaching out to your beloved world.

And when we stray, seek us out and find us, set our feet on the path again, and lead us safely home.
